(SRI KADIDAL MANJAPPA.)

the tests prescribed as per the Government Order of 11th January 1950. But officials holding acting tenures have not been given any increments as prior to 1st April 1952 they were not entitled to them as per provisions of the M.S.R.

(5) From 1st April 1952 i.e., the date from which an amendment to the M.S.R. came into force, even officials holding acting tenures are entitled to increments and therefore they have been allowed the benefit from 1st April 1953 to 15th June 1954 after which only those who have passed the tests prescribed in the Government Order of 11th January 1950 would earn increments.

(b) Because they are not eligible under the rules for grant of increments.

(c) No. As Heads of Departments have been empowered to grant extension of time by one or two years, in Government Order of 22nd September 1952, each case will be examined and disposed of on merit.

(d) Yes.

(e) It is not desirable to reduce the limit of 5 years in any case, since relaxation of the allocation rules would lead to a wholesale revision of allocations now ordered.
